

CONCERNING THE ETERNAL PREDESTINATION OF GOD

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Author's Introduction (253-256)	49
I. Calvin's Opponents and Their Theses (257-260)	53
II. Calvin's Contrary Thesis (260-262)	56
III. Supporting Evidence from St Paul (262-265)	58
IV. Supporting Evidence from St Augustine (265-270)	62
V. The Witness of Scripture (270-292)	68
1. St Paul and St Peter (270-273)	68
2. The Fourth Gospel (273-276)	72
3. Romans 9 (276-288)	76
4. The Covenant (289)	91
5. Isaiah 6.9 (289-291)	92
6. John 12.37ff. (291-292)	94
VI. Pighius' Arguments (292-295)	96
VII. Pighius' Proofs (295-298)	99
VIII. Refutation of Pighius (298-331)	102
1. Preaching (298-300)	102
2. God's will that all be saved (300-304)	105
3. Respect of persons (304-306)	110
4. The reason for election (306-313)	113
5. The reason for reprobation (313-318)	120
6. Christ's place in election (318-321)	126
7. Perseverance (321-322)	130
8. Exhortation (322-323)	132
9. The perversity of the reprobate (324-325)	133
10. The supposed ill-effects of Predestination (325-328)	135
11. Reprobation and the goodness of God (328-330)	139
12. Man's will and God's grace (330-331)	141
IX. Georgius (331-347)	143
1. Georgius: Election has different senses (331-333)	143
2. Georgius: Election is on the basis of faith (333)	145

	Page
3. Georgius: Scriptural blindness is punishment (333-334)	145
4. Georgius' denial of particular election (334-336)	146
5. Christ the propitiation for the whole world (336-339)	148
6. The Gospel rightly preached to all (340-341)	153
7. How the reprobate cause their own destruction (341-344)	155
8. Election precedes faith and perseverance (344-347)	158
X. Providence (347-366)	162
1. Definition of providence (347-348)	162
2. Particular application of providence (348)	163
3. Providence specially directed to the Church (349)	164
4. Exposition of providence requires discretion (349-350)	165
5. The end of providence a proper confidence (350-351)	166
6. Providence refers to past as well as future (351-352)	167
7. God the cause of all happenings, yet not the author of evil (352-354)	168
8. God's use of inferior causes (354-355)	170
9. Man's counsels overruled by God (355-357)	171
10. God moves in the hearts of the ungodly (357-359)	174
11. No mere permission in God (359-360)	176
12. The will of God the necessity of all things (360-361)	177
13. God's reasons (361)	178
14. God not the author of evil (361-364)	179
15. God's nature and will are simple (364-366)	182