

Table of Contents

List of Abbreviations | xi

Introduction | xv

1 On the First Book of the Torah (B'rei'shit / Genesis)

B'rei'shit

The need to go beyond the literal sense of the Torah | 3

The Hidden Light | 6

The surface meaning of the Torah and the Torah's innerness | 8

A longing permeating all existence | 11

Two modes of Torah-study | 14

The function of Shabbat | 16

Humility and the world's sustainability | 20

When one person judges another | 21

No'ah

Noah repaired the animals | 23

Lekh-l'kha

Go forth!—"Go to you!" | 26

Purity and impurity of motivation | 28

As the stars that shine by their own light | 29

Vayera

The pearl of healing | 31

The element of physical desire in intercourse | 33

The poles of mercy and justice | 34

Hayyei Sarah

A person's coming to the tzaddik (holy man) | 37

Tol'dot

The lure and cooling of appetite | 40

	Vayetzei
	Jacob's dream-episode	42
	The letters within all that exists	45
	Vayishlah
	Angels	49
	The tzaddik : solitude and community	51
	Vayeishev
	The two poles that one must avoid	53
	Miketz
	The tzaddik is oblivious to fame	57
	Vayiggash
	Submission	59
	Vay'hi
	Jacob's final testament and failure	61
2	On the Second Book of the Torah (Sh'mot / Exodus)
	Sh'mot
	Torah and time	67
	True worship requires joy	68
	The descent of the Divine	69
	Moses' fear of losing his humility	70
	The bush aflame	71
	The infinite Names of God	72
	Va'era
	The basis of Moses' hesitation	76
	Bo
	Humility renewed	79
	The meaning of matza (unleavened bread)	80
	B'shallah
	The miracle at the Sea	83
	Miriam and the dance at the Sea	88
	The meaning of manna	91
	Yitro
	Why did Yitro journey to Moses?	94
	A portrait of Moses as a judge	96
	The status of the Sinaitic event in context	98
	The gate of humility and its recurrence	100

Mishpatim

Justice and worship | 104

T'rumah

Moses as a model of the Tabernacle | 107

From each only according to his ability | 109

Repentance before and after study | 111

T'tzavveh

Fellowship and mutuality | 113

*Ki tissa*The Seventh Day as a day of renewed existential connection | 115

For each soul to know its initial location | 118

The veil over Moses' radiant face | 120

*Vayakhel*Exploring the parallel between Creation and the Tabernacle | 124

The joy of giving | 126

Bezalel and humility | 129

P'kudei

An accountant of the spirit | 130

3 On the Third Book of the Torah (Vayikra / Leviticus)Vayikra

The implications of humankind's uniqueness | 135

Every person is as the First Man | 136

Tzav

The fire to be kept burning upon the altar | 138

Sh'mini

The inner experience at the core of a cultic act | 140

Tazri'a

On laws of purity and impurity | 144

The affliction of pride and false piety | 147

The danger caused by deception | 149

M'tzora

The sadness that leads to joy and healing | 151

Ahare mot

Concerning those with whom we share a higher soul-root | 153

	K'doshim
	The paradoxical relationship between solitude and community	157
	'Emor
	The inner meaning of the calendar	161
	B'har
	Satiety	164
	B'hukkotai
	The world's benefit from Torah-learning	167
4	On the Fourth Book of the Torah (B'midbar / Numbers)
	B'midbar
	The need for both Torah-study and prayer	171
	Naso
	Blessing requires love	173
	B'ha'alotkha
	Sadness and the craving for food	175
	Sh'lach l'kha
	God's mercy overrides His anger	180
	Korah
	Aaron, as high priest, maintains his humility	183
	Hukat
	To each his own: the uniqueness of each person	186
	The significance of song	188
	Balak
	The danger in one's imitating another's path	191
	Pinhas
	The longing for the sublime Light that can be fulfilled only with death	194
	Mattot
	Defining one's motivation	199
	Mas'ei
	Cities of Refuge as Cities of Repentance	202
5	On the Fifth Book of the Torah (D'varim / Deuteronomy)
	D'varim
	As the stars of the heavens	209

Va'ethannan

- The background of Moses' death | 212
- Prayer in community and solitude | 215

Eikev

- The nature of manna | 217

R'eih

- Fellowship as the path to God | 219
- The need to overcome, and sometimes to strengthen,
a sense of self | 221
- The call to unseat pride within the self | 222

Shoftim

- To judge oneself: internal judges | 225
- Altars of pride and routine | 226

Ki tetzei

- The beginning of the year: Rosh ha-shanah | 229
- Amalek | 231

Ki tavo

- The bringing of the first-fruits: thanksgiving must precede fulfillment of appetite | 234

Nitzavim

- What comprises a community in its entirety? | 236
- The paradox of religious expression | 238

Vayeilekh

- The limits of relying upon one's leader | 241

Ha'azinu

- Fallen, unripe fruit of a tree | 244

Zot ha-b'rakhah and Rimze Simhat Torah

- Our Torah is copied from a supernal Torah | 246
- Continuity transcending death | 247

Glossary of terms | 249

Bibliography | 253