

Contents

|                                                                        |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Images                                                          | ix |
| Foreword                                                        | xi |
| 1 Introduction                                                         | 1  |
| Relation to Anglican scholarship                                       | 6  |
| Relation to Baptist scholarship                                        | 9  |
| Noel's social and religious context in the earlynineteenth century | 10 |
| Revolution and reform                                                  | 11 |
| Evangelical trends within Anglicanism                                  | 12 |
| The decline of Calvinism                                               | 13 |
| The influence of Charles Simeon                                        | 15 |
| An anti-Evangelical campaign in the Established Church                 | 17 |
| Tractarianism: an anti-Evangelical campaign from within?               | 18 |
| Relations between Anglicans and Dissenters                             | 19 |
| Anglican Evangelicals and political conservatism                       | 22 |
| The Establishment status of the Anglican Church                        | 23 |
| 2 'Everyone had a Noel cousin': Noel's upbringing andmarital home  | 26 |
| Noel's family background                                               | 26 |
| Evangelical connections                                                | 28 |
| The marital life of Sir Gerard and Diana                               | 30 |
| Birth and childhood of Baptist Noel                                    | 33 |
| Baptist Noel's conversion and spiritual development                    | 39 |
| Noel's university career and legal training                            | 42 |
| Noel as a law student                                                  | 47 |

|                                                                                                                    |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Noel's marriage and family                                                                                         | 55  |
| Mrs Noel's involvement in Evangelical life                                                                         | 58  |
| 3 'The Most Popular of Episcopalian Ministers': Noel's ministry in the Anglican Church                             | 61  |
| Noel's appointment to St John's Proprietary Chapel                                                                 | 61  |
| Noel's rapid rise to prominence                                                                                    | 64  |
| St John's Chapel and Edward Irving                                                                                 | 66  |
| Noel's rise within the Establishment                                                                               | 69  |
| Noel's Anglican appointments                                                                                       | 70  |
| Noel and the Tractarian Movement                                                                                   | 90  |
| Noel's local church work                                                                                           | 94  |
| The beginning of the road to secession                                                                             | 97  |
| The Gorham Controversy                                                                                             | 105 |
| 4 'Immersed in the dark pool of the Baptist chapel': Noel's secession and ministry within the Baptist denomination | 108 |
| Anglican reaction to Noel's secession                                                                              | 112 |
| Nonconformist reaction                                                                                             | 119 |
| Family reaction                                                                                                    | 121 |
| Wider reactions                                                                                                    | 122 |
| An attempted period of withdrawal from public notice                                                               | 124 |
| The James Shore Case                                                                                               | 125 |
| Noel's credobaptism                                                                                                | 128 |
| Noel's theological change over baptism                                                                             | 130 |
| Noel's induction into Baptist ministry                                                                             | 135 |
| Noel and Baptist Life                                                                                              | 138 |
| The baptismal regeneration controversy                                                                             | 139 |
| Noel's Baptist activities                                                                                          | 141 |
| 5 'That Revered Man of God': Noel's wider ministry and final years                                                 | 144 |
| Noel's concern for evangelism                                                                                      | 144 |
| London City Mission                                                                                                | 145 |
| Evangelism and social action                                                                                       | 147 |
| The evangelistic preaching of Noel                                                                                 | 148 |
| Noel's involvement in other evangelism                                                                             | 150 |

|                                                                                    |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Last Evangelistic Campaign                                                     | 153 |
| The 1859 Revival In London                                                         | 153 |
| The East End Missions                                                              | 158 |
| Noel's concern for Evangelical ecumenism                                           | 159 |
| The Influence of David Nasmith                                                     | 161 |
| The Evangelical Alliance                                                           | 161 |
| The Protestant Alliance                                                            | 163 |
| Noel's Concern For Missionary Work                                                 | 165 |
| Ireland                                                                            | 166 |
| Wider Missionary Interests                                                         | 171 |
| China and India                                                                    | 172 |
| Noel's Last Years                                                                  | 174 |
| 6 'A Knowledge That Leads to Genuine Piety':                                       |     |
| Noel's Theological, Social and Political Convictions                               | 179 |
| Theological Convictions                                                            | 179 |
| Noel's Independence Of Character                                                   | 183 |
| Moderate Calvinism                                                                 | 184 |
| Pietism                                                                            | 187 |
| Noel's concern for 'a knowledge that leads togenuine piety'                    | 188 |
| Pre-millennialism                                                                  | 189 |
| Noel's Political and Social Involvements: 'A kind andbenevolent heart for all' | 192 |
| Political vision                                                                   | 194 |
| Noel's Wider Political Ideals                                                      | 195 |
| Plea for The Poor                                                                  | 196 |
| Union of Church and State                                                          | 199 |
| Engagements In Social Reform                                                       | 201 |
| Sunday Legislation                                                                 | 203 |
| Temperance Movement                                                                | 204 |
| Vision For Education                                                               | 205 |
| Internationalism                                                                   | 210 |
| Child Poverty in London                                                            | 211 |
| Abolition and Emancipation                                                         | 211 |
| Animal Welfare                                                                     | 213 |
| Social Conscience in relation to Evangelism                                        | 214 |
| 7 Conclusions                                                                      | 217 |

|                                                  |     |
|--------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Bibliography                              | 225 |
| Unpublished Sources                              | 225 |
| Published Primary Sources                        | 226 |
| Contemporary periodicals and newspapers          | 226 |
| Obituary Notices and memorials for Noel          | 227 |
| Noel's published writings in chronological order | 227 |
| Works by Noel's contemporaries or earlier        | 230 |
| Secondary Sources                                | 235 |
| Index                                     | 247 |