

CONTENTS

Introduction

CHAPTER	Page
I. SON OF MAN
1. Philological Problems and Problems connected with the History of Religion	15
2. The Son of Man Concept and the Preaching of Jesus	21
3. Words concerning the future Action of the Son of Man	28
4. Words concerning the earthly Deeds of the Son of Man	34
5. Words concerning the Passion and Resurrection of the Son of Man	37
Excursus I: The Idea of the Vicariously Suffering Servant of God in the Earliest Christianity	54
2. KYRIOS
1. The Hellenistic and Old Testament Use of the Title of Lord	68
2. The Description of Jesus as Lord in the Palestinian Tradition	73
3. The "Lord" who is to come again	89
4. The Exalted One as "Kyrios"	103
Excursus II: Psalm 110:1 and the Idea of the Exaltation of Jesus	129
3. CHRISTOS
1. The Background in the Old Testament and Late Judaism	136
2. The Significance of the Messianic Concept in the Life of Jesus	148
3. The Messianism of Jesus in the Oldest Tradition	161

TITLES OF JESUS

4. Jesus as Messiah in the Context of the Concept of Exaltation	168
5. The Connection of the Passion-Tradition with the Christos Title	172
6. The Generalization of the Christos Title and its Use as a Proper Name	189
Excursus III: Analysis of Mark 8:27–33	223
Excursus IV: The Conception of the High Priestly Messiah and the Primitive Christian Tradition	229
4. SON OF DAVID
1. Jesus as Son of David in the Oldest Tradition	240
2. Jesus as the Son of David in Hellenistic Jewish Christianity	246
3. The Davidic Sonship of Jesus in the Nativity Narratives of the Gospels of Matthew and Luke	258
5. SON OF GOD
1. The Presuppositions of the early Christian Title Son of God	279
2. Son of God as Designation of the Jesus who is to come again and of the Exalted One	284
3. The Son of God Conception in Hellenistic Jewish Christianity	288
4. Jesus as Son of God in Hellenistic Gentile Christianity	299
5. Jesus as “the Son”	307
Excursus V: Analysis of the Transfiguration and Baptism Narratives	334
RETROSPECT	347
APPENDIX
The Eschatological Prophet	352
INDEXES	407